Acknowledgements

First, we would like to thank the editor of the International Gothic Series, Jerrold E. Hogle, who encouraged the idea of this book from the very beginning. His support and advice have made the journey towards a finished book much less Gothic than it otherwise could have been. Since, on the whole, the conception of the book, as well as the writing of it, has been a pleasurable and intellectually stimulating collaborative venture, the authors/editors are also very grateful to each other, not least for being the Nordic Gothic 'dream team'. Special thanks go to Yvonne for organising a number of workshops for us in Gothenburg; to Johan for treating us to a workshop in a Gothic castle in Växjö; and to Sofia and Maria for taking the main responsibility for contacts with the series editor and Manchester University Press, as well as for getting the manuscript together at the end. We also thank everyone who has offered comments on our papers on Nordic Gothic at different international conferences during the past few years.

Maria Holmgren Troy and Sofia Wijkmark are grateful to Magnus Bergvalls Stiftelse for travel grants that supported research trips to the British Library in 2018. They would also like to thank KuFo, the Research Group for Culture Studies at Karlstad University, for financial as well as intellectual support. Troy wishes to acknowledge the former editor of American Studies in Scandinavia for granting permission to reprint excerpts from an article that appeared in that journal in 2016 (48:1). As always, she is also grateful for Mark Troy's support, patience and good cheer. Wijkmark wishes to acknowledge Makadam förlag for granting permission to reprint excerpts from an article published in the Swedish anthology Norrlandslitteratur: Ekokritiska perspektiv (2018), edited by Peter Degerman, Anders E. Johansson and Anders Öhman.

Johan Höglund wishes to thank Magnus Bergvalls Stiftelse for the funding in 2015 that enabled important preliminary research. He also extends his thanks to the members of the Nordic Colonialism Cluster of the Linnaeus University Centre for Concurrences in Colonial and Postcolonial Studies for their valuable comments and encouragement. Finally, he is immensely grateful to his family Cissi, David, Agnes, Edith and Hilda for bearing with him during the completion of this project. You are the best.
