Acknowledgements

We would like to thank, first and foremost, Redmond Barry Distinguished Professor Stephanie Trigg for her brilliant scholarship, generosity of spirit and inspiring mentorship. We also express our deep appreciation and thanks to all of the contributors to this volume who, without exception, responded with enthusiasm and alacrity to our proposal for a collection of essays that showcases the best of contemporary Chaucer scholarship. Special thanks go to Stephen Knight and David Matthews, who were early champions and advisers for the project.

Sincere appreciation goes to the School of Culture and Communication and the Vice Chancellor's Office at the University of Melbourne for financial assistance, and to the editorial team at Manchester University Press for sympathetic support from the beginning to the end of the publication process.

*Helen M. Hickey
Anne McKendry
Melissa Raine*