

Contents

Notes on contributors—vi

Acknowledgements—viii

List of abbreviations—x

1	EU development cooperation: from model to symbol? Karin Arts and Anna K. Dickson	1
2	From uniqueness to uniformity? An assessment of EU development aid policies William Brown	17
3	The unimportance of trade preferences Anna K. Dickson	42
4	The ACP in the European Union's network of regional relationships: still unique or just one in the crowd? Karen E. Smith	60
5	Changing European concerns: security and complex political emergencies instead of development Gorm Rye Olsen	80
6	Changing interests in EU development cooperation: the impact of EU membership and advancing integration Karin Arts	101
7	'Sense and sensibility': the role of France and French interests in European development policy since 1957 Anne-Sophie Claeys	113
8	The Commission and development policy: bureaucratic politics in EU aid – from the Lomé leap forward to the difficulties of adapting to the twenty-first century Adrian Hewitt and Kaye Whiteman	133
9	Conclusions: the potential and limits of EU development cooperation policy Karin Arts and Anna K. Dickson	149

Index—153