

Contents

List of figures	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction: Perceiving, describing and modelling child development	1
Part I The first autism: The observation and description of child development before 1959	31
1 The first autism	33
2 The first autism controversies	92
3 Inside the Maudsley Child Psychotic Clinic in the 1950s	135
Part II How autism became autism	187
4 The transformation of social life and the transformation of autism in the 1960s	189
5 How do you measure a social impairment?	248
6 Epidemiology, epidemics and autism as a global health crisis	339
Conclusion	415
Abbreviations for Archives and Government Acts	435
Bibliography	437
Index	486